

On Your Feet Phonics and Reading Assessment

Level 1: Steps 1-12 (www.sorchaj.com)

Name of Pupil: _____

Teacher: _____

Date: _____

Class: _____

As each passage is read please circle any words that are mis-read.

Target that word for spelling or dictation exercises for that week.

Scoring

Step 1 ___ 54	Step 5 ___ 4	Step 8 ___ 18
Step 2 ___ 39	Step 6 ___ 63	Step 11 ___ 30
Step 3 ___ 00
Step 4 ___ 31	Step 7 ___ 48	Step 12 ___ 31

Total Score: _____ out of 318: Percentage Score: Multiply by 100: ___ %

List 1

pot	wide	ride
hope	rife	cave
yes	bag	got pin	bone	tone
tile	hate	jig
fan	tale	bun
dig	late	home
dope	hide	hare
sit	rope	late

List 2

Score: __ 27

pane	lot	tune
home	note	rum
did	bag	sum
pad	pile	fit

List 3

Score: __ 12

tag	lime	rip
fade	fad	life
dip	cane	lag
dope	rise	gale
sad	cog	pole

Score: __ 15

use want when over bring each

List 4

Score: __ 6

lame tames dome dames riles

lame tames dome dames riles

piners sides Len dates Sam

List 5

Score: __ 15

domes	soles
dame	pip
same	lines
lame	wine
fame	dine
game	fine
dates	pine

Score: __ 14

ale time pale wine

Score: __ 4

Passage 1

If you must, take the taxi to ride North, over these holes.

Use each joke on its merit, if you want.

You can tell Belinda to take the box home.

Passage 2

Forget the case, and bring the prams and the rest of the children up from the mines.

Each of these stakes is a difficult problem to cope with, for the sad men.

Passage 3

Martha will be safe, if you put stones over the holes.

Pamela left the big glass of lemonade, to run and jump over the hills.

The blokes with tar, lost their jobs, before the cash was used in the sales.

Put stakes in the grass and take the leftover pancakes, so as not to make a mess in the shop.

Passage 4

Can you bring cash over, with the card and take the bus to market?

Kate can tie the line to a rock, before he will use a rope to scale the cliff.

Please circle the errors. Total number of errors: _____

be new may walk are small tall

Score: __ 7

List 6

groze	trote	droke	flase
grat	brame	clipe	tropp
slume	cloke	stape	stame brobe	flafe	thrat	brone
grame	groff	skite	clase
drant	drine	glate	trafe

Score: __ 24

don't gone most all

Score: __ 4

Passage 5

Ray and Ann play with the sticky clay on Mondays.
You are not to walk with the girl who is a loyal royalist.
Jays make nests in May and stay till the end of the day.
Did he pay for his stay before he left for the day?
Will Dad and Moyra travel on the bus on Sunday?

Your Dad, Steve, was playful when he came from far away, but he did not stay.
Stay close to the bay and you will not be swept away on the tide. Send for a crayfish on a tray and pay Ray for it, before Monday. Who is true and loyal to the Royal? Is it true that hens lay eggs in the hay? Can the boys and girls play with your toys and models before you go home? Make and bake clay on hot days in May.

Please circle any errors.

List 7

fash	chep	noth	twith
desh	thim	weth	shim
drick	chep	dith	thup
pleck	chan	foth	chon
sash	shib	roth	shuf
gush	shup	frith	tith
teck	fitch	pritch	futch
stick	retch	leth	crath
dack	nish	natch	brath

List 8

Score: __ 36

gleck	frick	glack
plock	slock	nock
sleck	grick	bleck
preck	trock	pruck
snock	fack	gluck
dack	zick	grack
jick	cleck	teck
pock	frack	plick

pock smick pleck

Score: __ 27

List 9

stick	dish	luck	thin
tack	such	push	black
brick	pick	dash	rich
fish	lock	mash	path
prick	lash	neck	lick
sack	posh	crack	slick

List 10

Score: __ 24

flash	slick	treck	flock
trick	duck	flesh	truck
brick	froth	gash	pluck clock	patch	stick	clutch
lock	shack	rash	broth
flick	hatch	track	mitch

Score: __24

Passage 6

The small boy with the small blue bike did not ride or walk up the hill. The tall girl spoke quite a lot, but said nothing to her mum.

The thick stick is close to the dish to trap the rats and then, pass them in a bucket to Jake.

Bring me some milk in a glass, then pass the dish on the black shelf to Fred. Who is the thin girl and the tall boy? He stands next to the drum.

Please circle any errors.

Passage 7

A duck sits on the patch as it cannot walk or slide to the bank.

Bring a fat haddock in your backpack, but do not pack the bag with a box of tacks or with thick sticks.

She made a mat from thin black cloth and stacked it on top of the hat.

Dash to the pitch and make a slide for me, and bring the dog with a stiff neck and a big nose.

Please circle any errors.

Passage 8

Check the locks and take the truck to the docks, over the hills, and far away, before it gets too late.

When can I bring a crate of fish for the tall man, so he can take a fish home?

The man with the dog walks away, as a rich boy with a limp, walks to the side of the path, with his hands in his pockets.

Please circle any errors.

List 11

jolly	lolly	frisky	sulky	try	my	sly
thirsty	golly	musty	fry	fly	edify	cry gladly dry sandy rely

Score: __18

Passage 9

Tell me, if soggy chips or fish make me very happy or unhappy, and if the pastry has gone, will I be angry or unwell?

Did you make the frilly dress from the cloth on the shelf?

Thirty women drank most of the milk and ate the royal jelly, until it was all gone.

Can you tell Aunty Sally, to take most of the raspberry jam, to Jimmy and Tommy?

Daddy drank frothy lemonade too quickly, and plenty of the drink was too fizzy for him, he said.

Please circle any errors.

Passage 10

Milly, Tommy and Jimmy, copy the notes today, and I can tell you all a funny story.

Don't play with the broly when it is wet and windy.

Let the happy children bring some wet wobbly clay, to make the milk cakes.

Jimmy was very unhappy when the puppy ate the frilly dress from the shop.

The sherry may not get up your nose if you drink it, but not if you are angry or unwell.

Please circle any errors.

Passage 11

All of the fish swim away, in small red pots.

Try not to terrify or horrify, the shy man with hybrid plants, in the pigsty.

Don't apply for the job, if you cannot satisfy the boss and testify. The man brings the boys a pan, some chops and a large chicken. Watch the fireman quell the flames, then stand by the hydrant. He was a spy for most of his adult life.

Please circle any errors.

Passage 12

I think the boy with the empty glass will fortify the wine with spirits. Her stylish tall man has gone, but most of the small men are here. Drop me a line in July, to edify the class. Can you go to the Clyde in March to develop the film? You must try not to cry over spilt milk, or jump off a plank, to make a splash.

Please circle any errors.

Passage 13

Supply all the forms, magnify the print and testify with tales of the past and present.

“Why try to fry big fat chips and some small red chops in the pots?” Myra said. If you stray away from the path, you will probably walk on the grass and when it is still too wet, you will slip on the wet mud.

The sheriff will inspire the solitary man to clarify, verify and testify as a witness.

Please circle any errors.

Passage 14

The bishop drank his best burgundy wine and ate lots of spaghetti on Sunday.

Veronica will fulfill her desire to take the ferry across the lake. Do not be too sympathetic to sing that song, with Molly, for Robin and Erica, who may cry. You must try not to mystify all of the girls, with the birthday party. Most of the boys went for a walk, before Fred woke up.

The girl will carry the dish of venison, for her mum.

Please circle any errors.

Passage 15

Part of the land is soggy in Canada and the day is chilly, in the month of May.

It would be folly, if he spent his salary on jam, for the rest of the day. Put the mats on the line to dry, so we will be in time to testify.

“Don’t delay and put te hosepipe away”, said Janet.

“I have gone quite mad”, said the nasty, silly bully.

“I horrify the tall lads across the line.”

His vanity and insanity made him walk too far for the ferry, on the Atlantic. “I defy most of you, to send for the bus, since it may have gone, before you get home”, she remarked.

Please circle any errors.

Minnashine: Score 2 (If syllabes clapped was 3)

Datchimupa: Score 2 (If syllabes clapped was 4)

Score: __4

List 12

bless	shakes	grins
times	mitch	blame
chunk	snatch	snitch
snaps	brunt	skin
find	stack	cart
timid	nose	spill
rakes	plot	black
spell	glad	mist

Score: __ 24

they find women could

Score: __ 4

Passage 16

Before we could stop them, they had left the North for the West. The brave women could bake cakes at home, in hot ovens, by the hot stove. Some tramps could not find their way home.

Make a nest for the ducks, so they will hatch an egg and catch fish in the lake. We will decorate the current buns and rock cakes.

Trim the hot tripe, but do not forget to wipe your hands or it will drip on the mat. All of the men and women have gone home, on the small bus. Find some spines and twigs, in the wet ditch, from the dark forest.

Circle the errors.

Passage 17

Come to the fort to fly a black flag and drink a glass of milk. If they scratch your hand with a sharp blade, you must hide on the top of the hill. Sandra said that she is the black witch, who ate bats, but not on Sunday. Did the Swedes put their bags in the new kitchen and catch the bus?

Hot flames can char each of the small red tiles and make black spots. Drops can often drip on the mat, if you forget to wipe your hands. The big clock could fit in this fast food shop.

Circle the errors.

List 13

bitter	traffic	hiccup
frapper	sinner	stiffer
chatter	sadder	glitter
trotter	dripping	glimmer
plodding	tripper	slimming
bigger	trotting	horrid
fatter	runner	copper
brimming	rubber	digging
supper	stutter	jogging

Score: __ 27

many house people call

Score: __ 4

Passage 18

Many people find time to help each other.

Call at the kitchen for your dinner, before all the children go to the house, for supper. Walk on the path, to plan the cuttings, for the garden allotment. "Monica's mother is often sad", said Emma to her brother.

Your children can have some fish and chips in the house.

Spring is a better time for picking the cuttings.

Passage 19

The butter on the girl's platter, and the kipper, were for the hungry cat.

The butler was doing the shopping, to have dinner with a chum.

You will find the faster of the diggers, on the other tramway.

His brother and five sisters went in, but the others never came at all. Pecking is not the way to strike the rusty peg.

His hands in the cabinet were getting hotter.

The sender of this, is rubbing the silver.

Don't upset the new club members - call for me, if you cannot find a hammer. Walk with your mother and call at their home.

Call the other number, but don't go inside.

Circle the errors.

On Your Feet Phonics and Reading Assessment

Level 1: Steps 1-12 (www.sorchaj.com)

Level Complete.